Points FAQ

How many points do we need?

In order to qualify for the celebration lunch and a chance to win prizes, your team will need to earn at least 40,000 points.

Is there a prize for the team with the most points?

Yes! There will be a prize for the team that averages the most points per person on their team! (Using the average will make it fair between teams with varying number of team members.) So don't stop at 40,000 points – keep practicing and keep earning!

Explanation of SAT Prep Tasks

- Join the CCC SAT class on Khan Academy – Joining the CCC SAT class on Khan Academy will allow the CCC advisors to monitor your practice progress so you can earn points for the competition! For details on how to join the CCC SAT class on Khan Academy, see the Biggest Gainer module in the CCC's course on Canvas.
- Link College Board and Khan Academy accounts – By linking your College Board and Khan Academy accounts, you'll gain numerous benefits! When you import your previous PSAT or SAT scores, Khan Academy will analyze your results and create a customized SAT practice plan for you so you can focus your time and energy where you need it most. Linking your accounts also makes you eligible for the College Board's Opportunity Scholarships, which gives you the chance to win scholarships by doing college preparation tasks you're already doing, like studying for the SAT with Khan Academy or making a list of prospective colleges.
- Complete a full length Practice Test in Khan Academy between 2/28 and 3/6 – Completing full length practice tests are important because they are the only way to prepare for what you'll actually experience on test day. Timing and pacing are crucial to success on the SAT, and a practice test is the best way to improve those skills. The first practice test you take will be your pre-test score for the "biggest gain" portion of the Biggest Gainer competition.
- Complete a full length Practice Test in Khan Academy between 4/4 and 4/10 – The second practice test you take will be your post-test score for the "biggest gain" portion of the Biggest Gainer competition. Expect your score to increase after all of the study and practice you do throughout the competition.
- Attend weekly team study session (45 minute minimum) – Group study sessions give you the chance to check in with your team, ask questions, and learn from each other. For tips on how to conduct a productive study session, see the Biggest Gainer module in the CCC's course on Canvas. All team members must attend the study session in order to earn points. When and where you meet is up to your team to decide. To earn points, take a picture of your group and post it to social media (emails accepted for teams that don't use social media). Be sure to tag the CCC (Insta: @unionccc) to get your points!
- Practice for 30 minutes, 3 times per week on Khan Academy – Complete at least 30 minutes of practice on Khan Academy, 3 times per week in order to earn points. More practice is better! (Don't forget that practicing in Khan Academy for 6+ hours qualifies you for a chance to win $1,000 from the College Board's Opportunity Scholarships! Study for 20+ hours to earn 15 entries to win! Your CB and KA accounts must be linked!)

- Attend Mr. Schafer's Wednesday Meditation sessions for stress and anxiety management skills. – Test anxiety is a common obstacle for many students. In Mr. Schafer's Wednesday Meditation sessions, you'll learn mindfulness and meditation strategies to help you calm your anxiety and focus on test day (and all the other times and situations when you experience anxiety and stress). Sessions are offered on Wednesdays before school from 7:40-8:00 and after school from 3:15-3:35.
- Attend writing lab on Tuesday after school for essay instruction and practice. – The April SAT school day test will include an essay section. Mrs. Collins will be working on SAT essay prep during the CCC's weekly writing lab on Tuesdays from 3:30-5:00 starting March 9th. Come as many times as you can to get prepared!
- Attend the free SAT Prep Class with Shelly Beaty on April 1st – This free half-day SAT prep class will equip you with strategies and skills to do your best on the SAT! Morning and afternoon sessions are available. You must sign up in the CCC Canvas course in advance. Space is limited, so don't wait!
